

Congratulations

Archito Biswas

on stepping into the role of Deputy Manager.

Let's take a moment to celebrate your well-deserved accomplishment.

What's always set you apart is how you show up. A step above the rest, your edge factor lies in how you translate conviction into decisive execution

And what takes you further is just as unmistakable. Levelling up isn't for the ordinary.

Archito, you are *setting the pace,

not following it*
